SECTION B CASE STUDY (20 marks)

Instruction: Read the case study below and answer all the questions that follow.

Parents are the first teachers of moral behaviour to their children. If children do not behave well, other people often ask "Who are the parents of these children?" Children who have good morals will do things that the community consider as a norm. However, children who have no morals behave badly at school and in the community at large. As a result those children will not perform well in their schoolwork.

1. Give any two (2) primary groups in society that may influence the socialisation of a child. (2 marks)
2. Define norms and values. (4 marks)
3. List any four (4) class activities for children to learn good moral behaviours (4marks_)
4. Explain any one (1) behavior of children who are neglected by parents (2 marks)
4. Briefly explain any four (4) roles of parents which can help instill good behaviour in their children. (8 marks)
